

STANDING RULES

DEPARTMENT ORGANIZATION

AMERICAN LEGION JUNIOR AUXILIARY

DEPARTMENT OF ALASKA

Adopted 1999 - Amended 2005

PREFACE

Standing rules are rules and regulations for the guidance of an assembly, which have been adopted, the same as ordinary resolutions, by a majority vote without previous notice.

A Standing Rule may be amended or rescinded by a two-thirds vote, or if notice has been given, by a majority vote. Standing Rules are usually adopted, as they are needed, in the form of resolutions.

1. DEPARTMENT JR. ACTIVITIES CHAIRMAN DUTIES
2. DEPARTMENT CONVENTION
3. DISTRICT CONVENTION
4. ELECTING OFFICERS
5. APPOINTING OFFICERS
6. OFFICERS DUTIES
7. FINANCES
8. PROGRAMS
9. ANNUAL SCHEDULE
10. INSTALLATIONS / INITIATIONS
11. NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES

STANDING RULES - AMERICAN LEGION - JUNIOR AUXILIARY - DEPARTMENT OF ALASKA

1. Department Junior Activities Chairman must make all arrangements for the Junior Auxiliary Conventions and Conferences for both Districts and the Department Conventions. Arrange for meeting rooms, and activities. She is to plan for all of their programs and may have an assistant to help in the promoting of Auxiliary programs.
2. Juniors will elect Honorary Department Officers while in their meetings/portion of the Department Convention. Electing Honorary Junior President and other Officers to conform to the Constitution and By-Laws of the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Alaska.
3. Junior District meetings will be titled "Junior Conferences" to distinguish from Department Conventions.
4. Juniors may elect Honorary Officers at their Units, their District Conferences and at their Department Conventions.
5. Juniors at Department, District and Units may appoint Honorary Officers to fill their slate at the beginning of Convention, Conferences or meetings. Place new members in positions if possible so all Juniors may have the opportunity to learn.
6. Department and District Honorary Officers duties are the same as Honorary Unit Junior Officers. They are as specified in the Junior Auxiliary Handbook.
7. Juniors are to learn how to plan their expenditures and prepare their own Budget, during their first meeting annually which must be approved by the Finance Committee of their Unit, District or Department.
8. Auxiliary programs are to be conducted at the Junior Auxiliary level according to the Junior Handbook. Senior Auxiliary Chairman must explain their programs to them.
9. Annual Schedule to be prepared by the Advisor one month prior to all Conferences and Conventions and confirmed by the Department President.
10. All arrangements for Initiations or Installations "MUST" be presented to and have the approval of the Unit, District and/or Department President before commitment. (Amended May 1999)

11. Each Honorary Junior Auxiliary National Officer attending the National Convention from the Department of Alaska shall receive $500.00 to attend the Convention. The Honorary Junior Department President shall receive $500.00 to attend the National Convention, but will be limited to one $500.00. The Department of Alaska Junior Auxiliary members attending the National Convention will receive $200.00. No Junior Auxiliary member can combine National Convention attendee's amounts and will be limited to one National Convention attendee's amount. (Amended April 2005)